“A Fire of Coals”

The Apostle Peter Recognizes His Need for The Savior

Never before published, this fiery tale presents the apostle Peter's thrice denial of Jesus and how he deals with the subsequent guilt.

"An Ice Memoir"

(One Molecule Can Make a Difference)

A story of faith, hope, love, and sacrifice, starring the coolest little hero ever!

My friend Pastor Ron calls “An Ice Memoir” the strangest telling of the Gospel message he's ever read. (And he meant that as a compliment.)

I could classify “An Ice Memoir” as a political thriller, Christian historical romance, faith-based flash fiction, Sunday School lesson, science-fiction, dramedy, dysfunctional family drama, and more! After you read it, please let me know what fitting genres you think of too.

This story, which always makes me cry, comes from “Faith like a Ketchup Seed” which, along with “Holy Laughter!” and lots of extras, is part of “Holy Ketchup Seed Comedy Combo”.

In Addition

I also included two other segments from “Faith like a Ketchup Seed” which could also be called unique retellings of the Gospel story too: “What Would Jesus Do?” and the Church Skit: “Interview with Jesus”.

Along those same lines, this book also includes two segments from “Holy Laughter!”: “For Sale: One Tomb, Slightly Used” and “The Ultimate Movie Trailer!”

Plus, I’ve included some new famous funny fillers and/or platitudes of poignancy of mine.

Snippets

From “A Fire of Coals”:

He [Peter] glanced at John and thought, “John’s a good man, but not as good as me. I’m the only one willing to die for the Lord. If He hadn’t stopped me, I would have fought that whole garrison single-handedly!”

Savoring the aroma of the burning coals, Peter gloated within himself, “I truly am the greatest disciple.”

A stranger near the fire interrupted his thoughts. “Surely this man also was with Jesus, for he is a Galilean.”

Peter turned to see a group of people staring as the stranger pointed at him. He noticed two guards marching toward him. “I am not!” Peter felt appalled by the accusation. John closed his eyes and turned away to pray.

The guards trudged past. Peter sighed.

Another servant of the high priest, a relative of Malchus, gazed at Peter and asked, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?”

From “Interview with Jesus”:

PASTOR: Jesus graciously agreed to answer any question I ask Him.

JESUS: Except one.

PASTOR: Except one. He won’t tell us when the world will end.

JESUS: I’ll just say the time is near when I shall return in the clouds of glory. Now then, feel free to ask Me anything else.

PASTOR: Okay, Jesus. Son of God. Savior of the world. What is Your favorite color?

JESUS: (Laughs heartily.) You can ask Me any question in the universe; and you want to know what My favorite color is?

PASTOR: I just wanted to see if You have a sense of humor.

JESUS: My Father and I thought Our creation of the platypus would convince everyone of that.

Your satisfaction is far more important to me than the money I make from this sale, so if you dislike this book, return it in less than a week to Amazon; and they should issue a refund. Since you have nothing to lose; and so much to gain, go ahead, scroll up, click the Buy Button now; and be blessed.
