First A Dream (Dreams Come True) (Volume 1) Nicole Andrews Moore

Isabella married both young and badly. How badly became evident when a canceled Girl's Night left her with an opportunity to surprise her husband at work. Instead, Isabella was the one surprised to discover her husband was neither working nor alone, thus ending their marriage. As a photographer, it is important she feel that creative spark, that passion, but recent experiences have left her feeling empty and impact her work. Dream again, her professor advises. Gabriel is a rich playboy in town for the summer. Though his intention was to simply find a summer distraction, he instead met Isabella who changed his whole world. And he decides not to end what he started...ever. Unfortunately, theirs is a relationship built on Gabriel's lies and deception, a foundation too shaky to ever have a future.
