My Happy Heart Melody Carlson

Children's author Melody Carlson presents a delightful story of a little boy whose heart is overflowing with love. He has an unusual but delightful problem. He has made an "I Love You" card but now must determine who to give it to. As he encounters all the people who are dear to him throughout his day, he knows he loves them all and could give them his card, but he still holds on to it. At the end of the day, he still has his card, although it is now a little worn, and he decides to give it to the one he loves most...
