Still Surviving A. M. Johnson

Hate... Anger... Distrust... it fed the animal. Status... Money... Power it's all women want. Never yield... Never give them a piece of who you are. These were the ideals that Seth Montgomery had lived with since he was a child. After his mother abandoned their family for another man, the same man who took everything from Seth's father, Seth's life turned dark. He'd never give a woman all that control. He'd never give them the satisfaction of destroying his heart. Tiffany Webster had been falling in love with one man for the past three years. Her boss's best-friend. The day Seth walked into her bar, the day his steel blue eyes met hers, she was hooked. But, Seth Montgomery was unattainable, and only into one night hook-ups with a certain type of girl. A girl Tiffany was not. Tiffany was the one girl Seth had ever considered breaking his rules for, but swore he'd never corrupt. Until one night... when everything fell apart... and hidden truths surfaced. When your past hurts so much it makes it hard to breathe and your heart ache, what else can you do? What path should you take to feel something, trust someone again? Two hearts... two souls... align... One shift... one break... and you're falling. Feel this... trust this...Survive this.
