THE PAYING THE PRICE SERIES includes:

THE YACHT

Kitty Parker is a devoted wife with a high sex drive and a lot of sex appeal. But when she finds out her husband, a successful doctor and philanthropist, is using their yacht to have his love affair, she takes matters into her own hands. Her scheming ways land her in the arms of JaShon. And paying the price for her actions may be more than she had bargained for.

PARIS

JaShon is much more than a fling to her. Katarina's never done anything like this in her seven years of marriage to James, but she jets off to Paris to spend a week with JaShon. This magical week in Paris becomes a crucial turning point in her life, one which she will never forget, and one which she will ache to remember. When decision making becomes necessary, will she be strong enough to follow her heart and deal with the consequences of her actions? And will she get through it with tears of sorrow or tears of joy?

SANTA BARBARA

In part three, the final story in the Paying the Price series, three years after Katarina parts from JaShon during their ill-fated Paris love affair, she is now divorced and successful. She's written a novel that is an overnight sensation and is about to leave on a book tour. She loves her new career, but she keeps meeting Mr. Wrong. Even worse, James, her ex, shows up at her front door, offering her a chance to get back together and finally have children with him. But it's too little, too late, for James. And James is wrong for her in every way. When Katarina goes to Santa Barbara for her first book signing, she unexpectedly runs into JaShon! He invites Katarina to dinner and her heart leaps at the possibilities. She's missed him like crazy. Will Katarina and JaShon work things out, or will they finally part forever?
