"It was an old, old story, the fierce yet silent opposition between these two people ... the strife of the woman who demands respect, with the man who refuses to grant it."

When their father dies, leaving them all but penniless, the Lorimer sisters decide to open a photography studio - a scandalous step for a group of women in the late nineteenth century. From their shop in Baker Street they begin a new life as they prepare to face the world, experiencing romance, tragedy and betrayal along the way.
