With bouncy, rhyming text and comical cat cartoons, Brian Cleary's clever books introduce young readers to the different parts of speech (nouns, verbs, and so on) and categories of words (homonyms and homophones) in an easy-to-understand style that's full of life. Brimming with funny examples that show rather than simply explain, these picture books help kids learn about grammar in a lively, fresh way. These are books kids love as much as teachers do.
