-Short story-

Ava was trying to get her Valentine's Day decorations down, when another box hit her. What started out as a happy day, just turned into a trip down memory lane. Thinking she all but forgotten about him. Now, one by one, the birds bring their years to life in her mind. Making her recall a past, she tried to forget. From the good times, to the bad, she relives it all, on the feathers of the bird ornaments. The ones he use to send her every year, right before Valentine's Day. The only question still not answered? What happen to him? How does someone just love, then leave? With Valentine's Day looming again, will she finally get her answer?
