For Life is a Walking Shadow Barry McArthur

When Brian 'Brack' Fabian's teenage neighbour Carla goes missing, he is thrown together with her younger sister Skye. A friendship and romance quickly develops, and soon they are investigating Carla's disappearance together.

Gradually they start to put together the pieces of a much larger, wider and older mystery. Encompassing Chinese organised crime, ancient Chinese history and mysticism, the Arthur legend and the reign of Elizabeth I, Brack and Skye must go about their everyday teenage lives whilst trying to deal with the effects of abduction and murder, searching for some lost treasure along the way which will set them up for life. Meanwhile Carla wakes up with no memory of her former life, a blank slate on which her captors can write a new person into existence. Or at least try to...
