Real Estate Smart: What Your House Does To Your Life, And Why You Should Know About It. Matt Parker

Buying a new home?

"I would say it's a must-read for anyone weighing a rent or buy decision, anyone looking for their first home, and anyone looking to move to another home."

Dave, Seattle

"I have purchased three homes in my life, I wish I had this book to help me with those decisions."

Jim, Richmond

Worried you will make the right choice?

You will be surprised to find out what the latest statistics from the National Association of Realtors, Gallup, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, and multiple studies tell us about modern home buyer happiness.

In this brand new book, discover what unmentioned small choices you make have huge, meaningful impacts on not only your financial future, but also your fitness, health, relationships, and professional life.

Modern home ownership data reveals many things you never thought of! Learn:

—One feature in a given neighborhood encourages fitness up to 20 percent greater than others.

—One item on your street will make your children significantly safer, particularly from automobile accidents.

—A particular condition you may practice in your home makes many women chronically stressed.

—One trait of your neighbor plays a large part in whether or not you will divorce.

—One decision when signing your loan paperwork can cost you $100,000 or more.
