Excerpt from The Frost Family in England and America: With Special Reference to Edmund Frost and Some of His Descendants

For the past several years Thomas G. Frost, Ph.D., LL.D., of New York, and Edward L. Frost, M.D., of Buffalo, have, as opportunity offered, interested themselves in the Frost Genealogy. The former made personal investigation of the early English and American records, while the latter collected data from American sources. Neither knew of the work or existence of the other, until within a very recent period, when each had practically completed his manuscript. Upon comparing notes, it was deemed advisable to combine them in one publication, which has been done. For any peculiarities of arrangement, or undue repetition of statement, it is hoped that the original matter presented, particularly in Part I, will more than compensate.

To those who have generously furnished many necessary records, we acknowledge our great obligation, and trust that they will find the subject-matter of sufficient interest to partially repay them for their labor.

In the matter of publication, the following persons have cooperated: John E. Frost, LL.D., Topeka, Kan.; Dan Frost, New York; Wm. G. Frost, Montclair, N.J.; George H. Frost, Plainfield, N. J., and the writers.

Considerable effort for accuracy of record has been made. If, however, errors are found to have crept in, we shall deem it a favor to be informed of the same.
