The Spanish Surrealist, Salvador Dalí, in his 20's and tittering between genius and madness, is a mystical traveler through a series of fantastic surrealistic dreams recreating many of his great paintings. Dalí is a man who feels out of harmony with his time, wasting his genius in laughter, sperm and visions. He longs for someone to drive the demons away and give him back his soul. When Dalí encounters the formidable Gala during a meeting of the Surrealist Group, they unite in an experience of uncommon and stunning beauty; an experience that becomes legendary and culminates in a marriage lasting 56 years.
