She needs you...

The voiceless words Jay Merritt hears in the days, weeks and month's following his wife's death, a suicide.

He needs you...

The same words whispered in the ear of Lily Pemberton, so long after the death of her young son.

This is the story of two broken hearts, of being lost and being found, and finding.

Following his wife's death Jay retreats to their mountain cabin in North Georgia and quickly finds there is so much more than meets the eye there.

He finds signs, clues and hints, left by his wife before she died, pointing him to the next love of his life, his future, and his Destiny.

She needs you...

Jay and Lily are thrown together, and must battle through the predestination of serendipity to decide if their futures are truly entwined.

Out of the ashes of tragedy comes a love to last a lifetime.

She needs you . . .
