Lucas Swanson is your average everyday teenager. He is an orphan living in New York City where he goes to school, has limited friends that add up to two, is constantly bullied for no apparent reason, and has the strangest blue eyes anyone has ever seen. Until now, life had been full of the same disappointments for Lucas. That all changes one day however, when he discovers he is actually not from Earth, but from the magical world of Bomcard, where creatures such as dragons, giants and fairies are all very much real and deadly. Lucas also learns he must return to his home world to stop the evil Lord Barback from destroying the magical community. Along with new friends of all shapes and sizes, Lucas must race against time to stop Lord Barback from destroying Bomcard and discovers his true destiny may not only involve Bomcard but also Earth itself. The author has begun a long journey with this very enthralling fantasy novel – ‘Destiny – Book 1 in The Bomcard Trilogy’ ... a grounded, imaginative and well-written tale. La Riccia’s characters are well drawn and believable, his fantasy world also well crafted ... fresh, new and bright. It is sure to entertain younger readers and feed their imaginations. —Wendy O’Hanlon, Acres Australia This first time fantasy author has hit the mark when it comes to engaging your attention and this first book in the Bomcard Trilogy promises to open up a whole new world for readers who love this genre of novels. ... well written and full of mystery, with just enough storyline to draw you into Lucas’s story from the very beginning. I certainly look forward to reading the next part of the series. ... get set for the ride of your life as Lucas, our young hero, is set to discover who he really is ... — John Morrow’s Pick of the Week
