Undertakers, Who'd Have 'Em? Alan Smith

"Undertakers, who'd have 'em" This is one of the funniest books around. Not only does it let you into a world that would otherwise have remained fairly secret, it lets the cat out of the bag in terms of what the undertakers, morticians and policemen, have got up to in their own peculiar and somewhat specialised, brand of humour.

This is definitely a "Must Buy" book, for all in the profession. Even if you aren't in the profession, this is certainly a book that will make you laugh. If you are a comedy writer, there are many sketches in this book that can be used for ideas. You cannot afford to be without this book!
