School of the Prophets (Volume I): Ramah - The Place of Training Paul Shields

This deals with the difficult stages of training and development that God takes his servants through. The transition from infancy to maturity takes place here. This manual focuses on the need for understanding order, God's order and channels of authority in the local church and the consequences of breaking that order.

How do you recognize the voice of God? This manual also focuses on how to hear the voice of God. It also deals with the importance of how to develop an ear to hear from God and recognize God's voice when he speaks, whether it be towards individuals or to his church as a whole.
