The 7th Commandment (A Romance Eshort) ANGEL B.

The 7th Commandment is said to be the most obvious and easiest to understand and yet, seems to be one of the hardest commandment to obey.

Roya and Tyler Brennor have been married for 8 years and for the most part Roya believed that they were happy. They were always enjoying exotic vacations, taking in the nightlife together, and making love to near exhaustion... until recently. Lately Roya has noticed a change in Tyler's behavior. His schedule that she was once able to set her watch by had become irregular and unpredictable. Now he stayed out of the office doing what he called fieldwork, and making love has somehow become a chore instead of something they once had craved.

Tyler loved Roya more than anything, but he had somehow become his father and began cheating on his wife. There was no reason for his actions, yet he slept with different women as often as he could. Roya was beautiful, intelligent, and had a body that could make a grown man weep. So why did he step out on her every chance he got? Why was he hurting the woman that stood by him when others had walked away?

When the truth and lies began to blur, and a woman's intuition begins to press her to find proof, the thin line between love and hate will be crossed causing sinful acts to be punished.
