August has loved Claire since they were children. He fell in love with the blonde haired beauty when he first laid eyes on her. Their families are from two different backgrounds. Claire comes from a family of workers, who make an honest living working their hands to the bone daily. August comes from a rich family of warriors that have inhabited the lands where they live for centuries.

Claire's family likes August, but they are against her falling in love with a warrior. As far as they are concerned, a relationship with a warrior can only lead to heartbreak for their daughter. Claire does not care. She has been in love with August since they were children and she does not want to waste anymore time apart.

When August's life changes in an instant, he is not sure that Claire will stick by him. In the course of one day, he experiences a huge loss and gains a huge responsibility. He makes it clear that he wants Claire's hand in marriage. Will her parents agree to let Claire wed? Will Claire still want to be with August now that his life has changed?
