I AM :: the Light of the World!: Matthew 5:14 (Understanding My Identity in Christ by Excavating God's Word) (Volume 2) Tamar Sloane

Whether you are in a full-fledged identity crisis (as I have been), a long winded journey to find your place in this world (which I have also been), or a daily meltdown (I go there, too), you will find yourself made new with a new outlook on who you are according to the scriptures and in Jesus Christ. Take a deep breath.

Breathe and reboot. Sit back... research a little and take in each lesson to define yourself and who you are in Christ. Because that person is one amazing being created by God, for His glory and purpose, and that makes you more amazing that you could possibly fathom. A Five - Session Bible Study... surrounding the careful word choice of our Savior in His notorious Sermon on the Mount! One can only imagine discovering who they REALLY ARE and all God created them to be through the study of the stunning metaphors Jesus spoke. "You are the Light of the World."
