Riffs, parodies, poems, musings, mutterings, and pontifications ? here are 40 gems hand picked from the archives of Devlin O'Neill's Web Log and presented for the first time in book form. These are the author's selections from this vast online store, essays on the care and spanking of grownup girls, spanking positions and implements, and the what and why of adult spanking, along with literary pastiches that include a spanking by Sherlock Holmes. Four years in the making, Devlin O'Neill's Web Log is more magazine than blog, and contains hundreds of contributions by guest posters, contributors, and co-owners, as well as thousands of comments by scores of commentators. But the bits and riffs published here all are pure O'Neill, so read, or reread, and enjoy.
