Calvert Cove is a small town that shares a sordid history with the supernatural. The founding families of Calvert Cove live under protection from any impending attacks from vampires or the like, but that protection may not extend as far or as long as they would like it to.

Jessica is fortunate to be a descendant of one of the founders of Calvert Cove. She has never been afraid of vampires or any harm coming to her or her family and she wants her life to stay that way. But she learns that as quiet as her life has been, there is always room for things to change.

Adam's return to Calvert Cove is not one of pleasure. He has work to do to ensure the longevity of the vampires. A grand rite has to be performed, but in doing so, it can wipe out a portion of the population in the town. It is not something he wants to do, but he is the leader and he knows that he must maintain his loyalty to his kind.

He knows that the work has to be done, but what he does not anticipate is meeting and falling for the beautiful Jessica. She is the right woman, at potentially the wrong time and all he wants is to make the right decision.

Jessica and Adam both want what's best for their own, but that seems to conflict with what the grand rite says must happen? Adam has a choice to make and it is not an easy one. Save himself, save a town, and save the woman that he loves.
