La historia del numero 48915: Memorias de supervivencia de una adolescente en el Holocausto (Spanish Edition) Rachel Roth

Escrita para cumplir una promesa concebida en el momento más oscuro de la historia humana, esta historia sencilla y elocuente se extiende por la geografía de la solución final nazi. Rachel (Roma en polaco), la hija adolescente de un periodista, nos transmite sus experiencias de colegiala junto a sus compañeros de clase en el marco del gueto de Varsovia ocupado por los alemanes. Ella es testigo y partícipe del levantamiento del gueto de Varsovia. Forzada a salir de su escondite por el fuego y el humo de los nazis, se enfrenta con valentía a la realidad de las cámaras de gas y de los campos de concentración de Polonia y Alemania. Originalmente escrita en polaco, se trata de una historia inolvidable y reveladora de supervivencia.
