The patron saint of the artful home is back - for another season of delicious foods, beautiful decorations, and memorable family celebrations. This year her sack is bulging with great ideas, from unforgettable handmade gifts to ways to enshrine this year's memories. And the book is packed with new seasonal artwork! This latest offering in Mary Engelbreit's exciting new Christmas series is full of ways to set your table, stuff your family, welcome your guests...and welcome the season's guest of honor! All with Mary Engelbreit's customary wit, sparkle, and warmth. For in all the holiday hubbub Mary never loses sight of the heart of the matter - or the true meaning of Christmas. Special Feature: Mary chooses some of her favorite Christmas illustrations and tells why she loves them best.
