InTheFall: Part 1 : æmber Joseph Solomon

Honesty is what it is. an event told in order from the purest part of the soul. the source of the beat in the chest. the road for the race in the head.

Honesty by nature is always and never pure, because honesty is human and humans are flawed.

it is this flawed sense of one's self that causes the lie. to be more. to be better. to be that in which we dream.

a dream by definition can never be achieved. the moment it is...it isn't. to make it a reality is giving death to the idea.

to live your dream you must kill it

Once dead, once a reality...now it still cannot rest. the dream, now reality, cannot live as reality. can not ever falter. can never hold flaw.

can never be human can never be honest

We hold our new reality to the level of the dream. here on earth. where it has no power to be, but once here is forced to stay and so it haunts us instead

Love is held to this same level. we can write poems about the tolerance, acceptance...patience and kindness that love has.

but we never really believe it unless we have to we never view love as anything other than our perceived notion of perfection with ourselves.

we can never achieve our expectance of the word.

we are human.

So what happens when we try to break this?

what happens when love, dream, honesty all dance together

what is the song?

what are the steps?

This story is that. This story is what happens when our hearts are full. our dream of love is met. our souls are honest.

then what?

This is not a fairytale. though riddled with stars and fairies.

this is not what should have been or could have been

this is not what we wanted it to be

this is what happened when we tried to be it.

This a dream's heroic last stance, an attempt against odds to hold love honest in the face of reality.

this is life.

it can only be told as it was honest

pure
and flawed

as only love can be

Love is, after all, our most honest dream

the dream must die to be so love

on the purest level.

is death

after considering edit and structure...after trying to conform my scream...

I could not.

This is original stream of thought. It contains typos and mistakes.

it contains run ons and misspellings.

punctuation be damned

this book was written and given to you directly from my hands attempt to give my head's response to a heart beating too loud.

it is perfectly flawed.

I would have it no other way.
