The Intolerant Christ: Purifying Modern Christianity Through the Original Demands of Jesus and His Apostles Darin Bowler

Are you familiar with the following words?

"...if ye believe not that I am He, ye shall die in your sins." - Jesus

"He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." - Jesus

"...except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." - Jesus

"But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." - St. Paul

"The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." - St. Paul

It seems that many "believers" today are not even aware of these vital verses contained in the Word of God. You see, the New Testament church was founded upon the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and His apostles. The New Testament was finally completed and the last apostle died just before the end of the first century. It is in their writings that God has delivered to the human race the surest, most reliable and accurate words regarding salvation. Yet, somehow through time, the original demands of Jesus and His apostles have been degraded and dismissed as meaningless mandates, senseless stipulations and irrelevant rhetoric. This book is a full-frontal assault on the partial truths, blatant lies and trite traditions that have not only besieged modern Christianity but have actually infiltrated it. This book is a decree to discard the "cunningly devised fables of men". And it is a commission to reencounter the soul-purifying truths of the faith that was delivered first.
